Market insights that matter.

Intro

INSIGHT BUSINESS is the B2B-focused magazine of the INSIGHT LUXURY media platform, specifically tailored to professionals within the watch and jewelry industry.

At its core are relevant market topics, developments, and key questions that directly impact the retail landscape. The publication provides a clear editorial framework for content with substance—beyond traditional product staging and with a consistent focus on the business context of the industry.

A curated readership.

Audience

INSIGHT BUSINESS reaches a clearly defined B2B audience of jewelers, specialist retailers, and decision-makers within the industry.

With a circulation of 3,000 copies, the magazine is distributed via postal delivery to verified recipients (mainly in the DACH-region) who are actively involved in purchasing, assortment planning, and strategic direction. This creates a highly focused environment for partners seeking targeted visibility within the retail landscape – from industry-specific service providers to brands with a clear expansion focus.

Insightful & focused to the point.

Editorial

The editorial approach of INSIGHT BUSINESS is built on analysis, context, and relevance.

Key topics such as market developments, sales strategies, consumer behavior, and structural shifts are examined through a clear retail perspective. Complemented by interviews and industry voices, this creates a content framework that provides orientation and supports decision-making – insightful, precise, and to the point.
